

Headquartered in Dubai, Taghleef Industries (Ti) is the leading, customer focused, supplier of films solutions to a global market place. With a manufacturing footprint in 11 countries on 6 continents, Ti produces 500,000MT of specialized and multi-purpose films for the food packaging, labels, industrial and graphic arts applications. Film types include biaxially oriented polypropylene films (BoPP), cast polypropylene films (CPP) and industrially-compostable, biaxially oriented polylactic acid films (BoPLA). Ti strives for product performance through R&D and innovations to create constant added value for its customers and stakeholders by delivering the highest levels of performance, quality and service with a diverse range of products. Ti is the brand owner of NATIVIA®, EXTENDO®, DERPROSA™, SynDECOR™, Titanium™ and SHAPE360™ trademarks.

Job Title

Product Manager - Labels Specialist

Responsibilities

The Product Manager - Labels Specialist is responsible of the management of the products vs the market and vs the other company departments. He/she will be a bridge between market and R&D.

By way of non-exhaustive example, the Product Manager - Labels Specialist:

- Coordinates his work with several Departments for key activities related to the product;
- Monitors the quality development of the products and proposes changes and adjustments in coordination with other regions;
- Supports sales activities through customer visits, presentations, tests planning and collaborates with clients on the development of new films and applications;
- Collaborates to create new marketing tools (technical aspects);
- Analyses market and competitor activity in order to provide the business's product with a competitive edge.

Requirements

- Technical/chemical degree (eg Chemical Engineering, Materials Engineering – Polymers specialization)
- Experience in labels industry is requested
- Fluent English - Knowledge of a second language is appreciated (Italian, French, German, Spanish)
- Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, Power Point in particular)

- Willing to travel (about 50% of working time)

Location

Taghleef Industries Spa – San Giorgio di Nogaro (UDINE - ITALY)

Work schedule

From Monday to Friday – From 8:30 am to 17:30 pm (one hour lunch break)

Salary Package

To be discussed

The processing of the candidates' personal data will take place in compliance with current legislation on the protection of personal data. The information for candidates is available on the Taghleef Industries website at the "Privacy policy" section.